Dear Paul

Thank you for your assistance in the recruitment and selection process of a new sales staff member for Rayner & Associates. We are very pleased with the candidate that your procedure has turned up. Having been in business over 20 years, we have never used a method such as this, but believe that we have been successful in finding a sales performer to fit our dynamic team. Of course, time will show to what extent our newest employee will thrive. But to date your search process has resulted in what looks like a great match.

Your interview preparation and technique were quite rigorous, and I'm satisfied with the end result. I've also appreciated that, quite simply you've done what you said you would do. We are happy to recommend your services in this regard.

Yours sincerely

Mark Rayner
